

Canon Hilary Barber (he/him) is Vicar of Halifax Minster in West Yorkshire. Hilary has a large portfolio at national and regional level, working across many sectors and with government. Internationally he connects with both Germany and Tanzania bringing together Religious, Civic and Military connections. In recent years he has been the Co Chair of the Interfaith Network UK, bringing together the faith communities across the four devolved nations into dialogue with government. As Chair of the Joint Ethics committee for the Combined Local Authorities of West Yorkshire, he regularly comes into contact with supporting the Mayor of West Yorkshire and the Chief Constable on issues of Hate Crime.